

Alaskan Way Viaduct & Seawall Replacement Program

NEPA/SEPA PROCESS

SDEIS 2

Final EIS

Record of Decision

Follow-on-Activities

	SDEIS 2	Final EIS	Record of Decision	Follow-on-Activities
Project Level	BORED TUNNEL
	Clear description of tunnel location, portals, and connections to surface streets.	Updates description of tunnel and related project elements.	Confirms tunnel location and key project elements.	Architectural design of buildings and portals.
	Explains how the tunnel could be built and how it would operate.	Updates how the tunnel could be built.	Explains selection of the bored tunnel.	Inter-agency agreements.
	Describes how possible impacts could be mitigated.	More detailed explanation of how impacts could be mitigated as needed.	Makes mitigation commitments to guide construction.	Permits.
	Briefly compares bored tunnel with earlier alternatives.	Responds to comments.
Non-Project Level	ALASKAN WAY SURFACE STREET
	Describes transportation function of Alaskan Way.	Updates traffic conditions and travel times.	Confirms transportation function.	City of Seattle Leads waterfront planning, design, and environmental review of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Open space &amp; urban planning</li> <li>· Roadway design</li> <li>· Parking</li> <li>· Waterfront promenade</li> <li>· Utility Relocation</li> </ul>
	Explains traffic conditions and travel times.
WATERFRONT PROMENADE				City of Seattle &amp; Corps of Engineers Leads planning, design, and environmental review to repair or replace seawall: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>· Habitat enhancement</li> <li>· Endangered Species Act</li> </ul>
General description of area and activities.
	Explains potential open space and how it could be used.
	SEAWALL
	Describes seawall, its function, and general condition.
	General explanation of how the seawall could be repaired or replaced.			